Gaw Van Male Attorney Speaks at CPA Conference

NAPA, California - Gaw Van Male, Counselors at Law, continues to be recognized for its leadership in Estate Planning. James P. Lamping, an attorney with Gaw Van Male, recently spoke at the 2007 Estate Planning Conference presented by the California CPA Education Foundation.

Lamping spoke about sub-trust funding, presented to 350 attendees in Los Angeles and San Francisco. He is a Specialist in Estate Planning, Trust and Probate Law, certified by the State Bar of California Board of Legal Specialization. Of more than 200,000 licensed attorneys in California, only 800 have earned the certification. Gaw Van Male has four certified specialists.

“Gaw Van Male is pleased that our knowledge of wealth preservation is being recognized on a statewide level,” said Dave Gaw, co-founder of the law firm and head of its Estate Planning Department. “To Jim’s credit, it’s very significant when Certified Public Accountants invite an attorney to speak at statewide conferences.”

Lamping holds the advanced Master of Laws degree in taxation, and focuses his practice on Estate Planning, Trust Administration, and Probate Litigation. Following admission to the California Bar in 1999, Jim qualified as a member of the United States Tax Court Bar, and has appeared in several Superior Courts and in the United States Bankruptcy Court.

Founded in 1972, Gaw Van Male has grown to 27 attorneys and 40 staff members in Napa Valley and Solano County. It is one of California’s most respected Estate Planning practices, and is the area’s leading securities and business transactions firm.

Lamping can be reached at 1000 Main Street, 3rd Floor, Napa, 707-252-9000 or
