Dave Gaw Attends LawPact Conference

NAPA, California - David B. Gaw, director, shareholder and co-founder of Gaw Van Male, counselors at law, recently attended a conference on international business law in Orlando, Florida.

"Gaw Van Male (GVM) understands the importance for many of our clients that we have international legal contacts," said Gaw. "For example, our association with LawPact connects us with attorneys who advise the wine industry around the world. This gives us the ability to network and assist our clients wherever they do business. In a global economy, it's essential to have a broad reach."

LawPact is an international association and network of independent business law firms. Its mission is to ensure excellence in client service, application of cutting-edge technologies, and reliability of members. Membership is by invitation after panel review and selection.

Gaw, who is a Certified Specialist in Estate Planning, Trust and Probate Law, by the State Bar of California, Board of Legal Specialization, serves as Vice President of the Association.

"We see a similarity in issues worldwide," said Gaw. "There is a growth in intellectual property law and water law. When we notice specific issues developing, we hire qualified attorneys to meet the expanding needs of our clients. We have a continual commitment to employing only high quality individuals and have been extremely happy with the caliber of well-educated and experienced attorneys who have joined our firm."

Gaw co-founded the law firm in 1972. It has grown to 25 attorneys and 40 staff members in Napa and Solano counties, with concentrations in business, estate planning, and litigation, serving local, regional and international clients, including many individuals and families.

Dave Gaw speaks extensively throughout California and the nation on a variety of estate planning and administration topics. He practices estate planning and administration, elder law, succession planning and exit strategies.
