Napa Law Firm Wins American Graphic Design Award

NAPA, CA –Gaw Van Male has been named 2006 American Graphic Design Award Winner by Graphic Design USA Magazine for excellence in communication and graphic design in corporate identity.

The American Graphic Design Awards is sponsored by Adobe Systems. Advertising agencies, design firms, corporate and institutional departments, publishing houses, and others compete for the prestigious award. It honors outstanding new work of all kinds including print, packaging, point-of-purchase, Internet, interactive, and motion graphics. Winners are published in Graphic Design USA magazine, and viewed by more than 100,000 professionals.

“This is a real honor and a gratifying endorsement of our work to present Gaw Van Male’s core values in a visual medium,” according to Dean Kackley, who guided the year-long branding and identify initiative for GVM.

The graphic designer was Garson Design Services, a Fairfield-based firm. “Steve Garson did a magnificent job of expressing visually our message and mental images. His work on our logo, stationery, brochure, presentation materials, and website has been very collaborative. He’s a professional and a joy to work with,” Kackley said.

Founded in 1972, Gaw Van Male has grown to be the largest law firm in Solano and Napa counties with 25 attorneys and 40 staff members. Gaw Van Male is the area’s leading securities and business transactions firm, and is one of California’s most respected Estate Planning practices. Also active in employment law, litigation, tax, intellectual property, and real estate, Gaw Van Male takes a comprehensive multidisciplinary approach to the opportunities and challenges facing its clients.
